An Unexpected Jesus - Healer of Sinners - Mark 2:13-17

Introduction: Over the last two weeks, we saw how Jesus prioritized His message over His miracles. This week, we will begin a series of four complaints from Jesus' opponents - the Pharisees.

The Calling of Levi (Matthew) (Mark 2:13-14)

Reminder: A disciple of Jesus is one who is willing to _____ Complaint #1: Jesus hangs out with u _____ p _____!

Root of their Complaint = _____

Pharisees	"Sinners"
They wanted C _____ to come to t _____. Why?	They wanted to go to C _____ . Why?
Answer: Recognition of their g _____ d _____.	Answer: Recognition of their b _____ d _____.
ROOT = _____	ROOT = _____

Point: The gospel is for those who r _____ their b _____ deeds; not for those who want r _____ for their g _____ deeds.

Jesus' Message to the Pharisees:

Jesus' Message to the "sinners":

Questions for Introspection:

1. Levi was willing to burn all bridges to follow Jesus. Would you be willing to uproot yourself, burn all bridges if need be, to follow Jesus?
2. When you think of sinfulness, do you think of it as "out there" or "inside me"?
3. When you come to church, do you expect to be affirmed in your beliefs and actions, or to be convicted of present sins in your life? (This is really just another way of asking, "Do you think you are a good person or do you recognize that you are bad?")
4. When you do good works, what is your motivation? Is it from a desire to be recognized as superior, or out of appreciation for Christ's forgiveness?
